SHERIFF'S BUSY

Desperate Criminals Are Arrested Here.

THREE CONVICTS CAUGHT

IDENTIFICATIONS SEEM TO BE COMPLETE.

Deputy Sheriff Goldman Has a Tussle With Two Hard Characters Who Made a Gun Play Necessary-Men Badly Wanted in Other States By Officers of the Law.

The sagacity and pluck of the sheriff's office was rewarded yesterday in astray, if the theory of the police is the arrest of two desperate criminals right in the city, the capture of three burglars who were beating their way out of the state, and the identification of three escaped convicts who are wanted in eastern states to serve out sentences. It was a record-breaking day, but it was to be expected. Intelligent theories carefully and shrewdly carried out brought the desired re-

Early in the day Deputy Sheriff Goldman brought to the county jail a tough-looking stranger by the name of Frank Zimmerman to serve a sentence of sixty days on a conviction at Murray before Justice McOmie for peddling fake jewelry without a license That the prisoner was a desperate criminal was not to be doubted, but the officer had no trouble with his man until they got within a block of the

Tried to Escape.

At the corner of Second South and First West streets Deputy Goldman was surprised to see a hobo, who evidently belongs to the same class as the prisoner, stop the traveling pair with a demand that the officer release his man. An idle threat never yet stopped Goldman, and on this occasion he merely remarked to the stranger that ing taken along to jail, too.

Scarcely had the remark been ut-tered than the hobo attempted to rescue Zimmerman, whom he claimed to be his friend. Holding tight to his prisoner with one hand, Goldman reached for his gun with the other. This hostile demonstration had the ef-fect of causing the interferer to run across the street.

A shot from Goldman's gun stirred up the mud under the fellow's feet and brought him to a halt. When Goldman got his two prisoners together and started to cut down the few rods in-tervening between them and the jail, the would-be rescuer of Zimmerman made another effort to down the offi-cer, but a stinging blow from his gun struck the fellow on the side of the head, rendering him senseless.

Arriving at the jail, Zimmerman's rescuer gave the name of John Smith. He was recently released from the city jail and confessed that he and Zim-merman were confederates in crime. Draper Burglars Caught.

The descriptions of the three men suspected of having burglarized the Draper Mercantile company's store on Wednesday night, together with recita's of the plunder taken, which were sent broadcast the next day after the burglary was reported, was as bread cast upon the waters.

At Terrace, on the Southern Pacific line west of Ogden, the three hobo burglars showed up, offering to sell the At Terrace, on the Southern Fachic line west of Ogden, the three hobo burglars showed up, offering to sell the station agent some of the knives bearing the Draper store's cost mark. While the agent was striking a bargain he hit the wire to Ogden, asking Sheriff Lavne if he had lost any burglars. It happened that Layne was not looking for any criminals of this description, but he thought Sheriff Howells wanted the trio. Sheriff Howells was called up by telephone, and the word was sent back that the men should be arrested and held till he could send over

With this information the Terrace station agent, with the aid of the peo-ple around the depot, surrounded the trio and held them captive till the village constable, armed to the teeth, came up and shackled them. Sheriff Howells left for Terrace last evening to bring the burglars back to

Three Escaped Convicts.

Sheriff Howells and his deputies know a good thing in the criminal line without seeing it. This time it is three good things, and their worth was discovered by intuition.

Ever since the sheriff formed the ac-quaintance of Tom Mosier the convic-tion has grown upon him that Tom is badly wanted at the Joliet (Ill.) prison to serve out a balance of eighteen years on a sentence for highway robbery and other crimes. Correspondence with Warden Murphy has just brought the information that Tom will be met at the door of the county jail on Oct. 10 next, when his sentence expires, and be taken back to Joliet, from which place he escaped last year.

vict as the officers have had in custody for a long time. He was sent up for six months for breaking into a Rio Grande Western work car near Bingham Junction. Not satisfied with identifying one escaped convict wanted in another state, Sheriff Howells has demonstrated that he has two others of the same kind on nose heads there is also a reward of "Fatty" Johnson and L. J. Meeking, alias Andrews, are the two who are wanted at Anamosa, Ia., for breaking jail there a couple of years ago. Johnson is variously known as Howard, King and Dwyer, and both are long ime convicts in Iowa.

Johnson and Meeking are doing six months' time each in the county jail for grand larceny committed in Salt Lake county. The sentence of the first named expires on June 1, and of the other two weeks later. Warden Hunt has written that he will be here to resive them, and Sheriff Howells will ceive them, and Sheriff Howells will arrange to release them at the same

Alex Cameron fell into the limbs of Officer Johnston yesterday morning while occupying one side of First South and a portion of the street. Alex was happy. After some tabulating he concluded that his age was 387 years, but no man could accuse him of nativity, if he was drunk, and he wanted it understood. "What do you work at?" queried the desk sergeant.

"General principles usually," said
Alex. Then he grew wise.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A CRUEL TRUST.

There is a combination of cigar man-ntacturers in New York which for cownright meanness have no parallel in the history of tructs. This trust was not formed for the purpose of increasing the cost of cigars to the consumer, or decreasing the cost of production solely, but more for the enslavement of the men, women and children employed by them. The wages of these unfortune people were never more than a bare ence, and their homes, the horrible York tenement house. In short order, all the rest of the firms in the combine closed their factories, throwing their employees, some 5.000 in number, into the streets, for no other reason than to make it impossible for them to exist the strikers in the for them to assist the strikers in the factory of Kerbs, Wertheim & Schiffer. Other prominent firms in the combine are Hirschhorn & Maack, manufacturers of the "Tom Moore" and "Henry George" cigars, Harburger & Homan, Kauffman & Co., and Hilson & Co.

We call upon every smoker who be-lieves in fair conditions, and who be-lieves that the producer is entitled to just remuneration, to desist from pur-chasing cigars made by these firms. It lies within the power of the consumer to create no less than 200 situations in this city for these unfortunate people, where they could live as human beings should live, by demanding home made cigars, and at the same time benefit the city by increasing its industrial population.
